

Dear Students,

Join us for an online certificate workshop on GAME THEORY & CLIMATE CHANGE, and, the legal & philosophical foundations of Climate Policy as per programme:

Date: Saturday, 13 November 2021, Time: 12:00 to 2:00 pm and 2.30 to 4.30 pm

Organized by GPI & ENVIPOL

[Global Policy Insights (GPI) partners with and serves governments, universities, local and multinational communities, and corporates worldwide to deliver innovative unions of research, advisory, design, deliberative inquiry, and consulting services. GPI's areas are international political economy, strategic studies, governance, sustainability, and artificial intelligence.

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE

FACULTY OF LEGAL STUDIES-SOUTH ASIAN UNIVERSITY

About the Speakers:

Arpit Chaturvedi

Arpit Chaturvedi is the co-founder and CEO of Global Policy Insights. He is also a lecturer at the San Francisco State University where he teaches comparative perspectives in public service to graduate students. A graduate of the Cornell Institute for Public Affairs, Arpit holds an MPA degree with a focus on governance, politics and policy studies. He was also the first non-US citizen to hold the position of the editor-in-chief of the Cornell Policy Review.

Eeshan Chaturvedi

Eeshan Chaturvedi is the founder of EnviPol and the assistant dean at Jindal School of Environment and Sustainability. He is an environmental and energy lawyer and had completed his LL.M. in environmental law and policy from Stanford Law School in June 2015. After graduating in Bachelor of Business Administration and Bachelor in Laws, he served as a judicial clerk in the Supreme Court of India. After this, he became the first judicial clerk appointed by the National Green Tribunal with specific interest in environmental litigation and policy.

Link for the Google Form: <https://forms.gle/35Tbsh91MQ7UJx4p9>

Coordinators

Dr. Stellina Jolly

Dr. Nafees Ahmad